

Mary Baker Eddy

a life of discovery

How did this Swampscott and Lynn resident become one of the most famous and influential women in America?

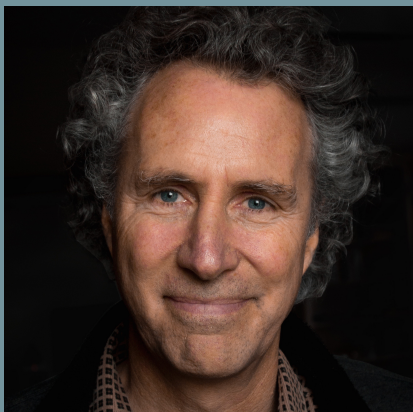

12 Noon Wednesday, September 14, Lynn Museum

590 Washington St., Lynn - Part of the Museum's free MESA lunchtime series (Bring your lunch if you wish)

11 am Saturday, September 17, Swampscott Public Library

61 Burrill St., Swampscott - Free admission

How did a farmer's daughter who was an invalid for the first half of her life go on to become "the most interesting woman who ever lived, and the most extraordinary" according to Mark Twain? What impact have her writings had on the world over the last century?

Join Chet Manchester, former creative director for The Mary Baker Eddy Library in Boston and now a Christian Science lecturer, to explore this fascinating life of discovery. For more info, call 781-346-4362 or go to christianscienceinlynn.org.